The Indiscretion of Kern.

Mr. Bryan's running mate on the Democratic ticket, Mr. Kern, in the course of a speech in Baltimore Sept. 23 declared himself as follows: "Under our system of jurisprudence every man is presumed innocent until his guilt is satisfactorily shown."
 This is an amazing statement. It shows that Mr. Kern has either imperfectly rehearsed the part assigned to him by Mr. Bryan or has deliberately changed his lines to suit his own fancy. In any event he is likely to receive a sharp reprimand from his chief.
 It is self-evident that if Mr. Kern's proposition is true of individuals it is equally true of corporations. Yet Mr. Bryan's contention is that the mere existence of an interstate corporation proves that it is a lawless organization and should be smashed on general principles. The idea that such a body has definite legal rights and that those rights cannot be forfeited except by due process of law is intolerable to Mr. Bryan. He would destroy the corporations and, if need be, try them afterward. He complains that the "trust magnates" have not been slapped into prison. The fact that they have not been indicted, tried, convicted and sentenced in due form as prescribed by law is nothing to him. He is reaching out for a revolutionized system, under which the president shall be judge, jury and executioner, and he won't be happy until he gets it.

 Mr. Bryan is an advocate of lynch law for interstate corporations. He has convicted them already and would subject them to summary execution if he could have his way. His policies would not only forfeit the property rights of shareholders in such corporations, but would enormously increase the cost of production and distribution in many of our greatest industries. The highly organized methods which now provide unsurpassed facilities for exchange between producer and consumer would be seriously injured if not actually destroyed by the application of the Bryan policies. Who can doubt that the result would be an increase in the cost of production, an increase in the cost of transportation and hence an increase in the cost to the consumer of commodities so affected?

Mr. Kern's talk about punishing corporations only after due process of law is a grave indiscretion. It is a contradiction and almost a betrayal of the whole Bryan program. The Nebraska agitator has already entered a verdict of guilty against the corporations and passed the death sentence upon them. His policy is, "Due process of law be damned, and the corporations along with it!"

Bryan Knows It's Bosh.

President Roosevelt hits the nail on the head when he points out that Bryan's pretended remedies for corporation evils are chimerical. Courtesy probably prevented the president from adding that the alleged remedies are so chimerical, impracticable and utterly at variance not only with the constitution of the United States, but with the rights of property everywhere throughout civilization, as to suggest insincerity on the part of the person submitting such flimsy absurdities.

We have before pointed out that Bryan's plan of preventing any corporation from doing more than 50 per cent of the total business in any particular line would invalidate the patent and trademark laws of the United States and rob each and every inventor of half the income to which he is entitled. It would involve an inquisition into every large business handling certain articles exclusively, and it might readily be construed to cover proprietary articles of every sort. But why pursue the subject? President Roosevelt has chosen the more polished phrase—"chimerical." The fact is, however, in plain talking English, it's bosh, just bosh, and Bryan knows it's bosh.

President Roosevelt again hits the nail on the head when he says that "no law defying corporation has anything to fear from you (Bryan) save what it will suffer in the general paralysis of business which any attempt on your part to reduce to practice what you have advocated would bring." True, and it is also true that the one corporation conspicuous for its defiance of law and dealing in an article in common use all over the world seems quite ready to run the risk of Bryanism for the prospect which Bryanism holds out of continuing to defy the law. The corporation in question regards Mr. Taff's election very much as a burglar regards his arraignment in court before a certain judge. The burglar was trembling and evidently very much worried. "You need not fear," said his honor. "I will see that you have full justice done you." "Your honor, that is just what I'm afraid of," replied the burglar.

"Is fiction declining?" asks a Chicago paper, the editor of which evidently is not reading Mr. Bryan's speeches.

"No boss shall run the Democratic party," says Mr. Bryan, meaning, of course, "no other boss."

All's Well That Ends Well.

The little sailboat was becalmed. "Can't you whistle and raise the wind?" he asked.
 "I'm afraid to try," she answered.
 "What are you afraid of?" he asked.
 "I'm afraid you might attempt to kiss me when I got my lips puckered," she said.
 "I'll do nothing of the kind," he promised.
 "Nothing doing then," she declared.
 "No kiss, no puckering."
 "Whereupon he withdrew the rash promise he had made and although the boat continued to remain in the becalmed state they cared not a single care.—Chicago News.

"My Worst Aches"

"Every Month"

writes Mrs. Mattie Campbell, of Ratcliff, Tex., "I suffered untold misery. It is hard to say where my worst aches were, for I ached all over. At times I wished for death to end my suffering. Finally I decided to take Cardui, which has stopped my suffering and made my life worth living. I would not be back, like I was, before I took that wonderful medicine, CARDUI, for this whole world rolled at my feet."

Why suffer female pain, when Cardui, Woman's Relief, is in every drug store, waiting for you to give it a trial? It has helped thousands of others. Why not you? Female pain is a sign of female disease. Female disease is a sign of female weakness. Weakness, disease and pain, have been found to disappear, by the use of Wine of Cardui. Try it. All reliable druggists sell it.

Spring, 1907—Grass seed sown in plant beds all over neighborhood of Long Hollow.

Tobacco of old negro near Caledonia thrown in pond.

A man living in Trigg county and taxpayer, received an anonymous letter threatening him and he appealed to Judge Bingham, county judge for protection, whose only reply was "get in the association."

Telephone wires cut in sight of Trigg county court house.

Outrages and threats against Jack Davis, Hawkins Bros., and others at Cerulean. Lucian Miller, Jesse Vinson and others at Cadiz.

Plant beds of Kiah Malone, W. R. Fourquean and others destroyed.

April 23, 1907—Burn Wilson's warehouse at Golden Pond, committed by large party of masked men, who cut telephone wires, shot into residences, drove people into their homes and after creating a general reign of terror destroyed the barn with 800 pounds of tobacco.

April 23, 1907—Tobacco beds of Edgar Mitchell and Curg Noel scraped near Caledonia.

July 25, 1907—A band of about forty men went to the home of J. W. Barefield and after cursing Mrs. Barefield, took her husband out and severely whipped him.

July 13, 1907—Took Nathan Hester out of his home and severely whipped him, while his wife lay fainting on the porch.

July 29, 1907—Went to home of Steve Moseley, a prominent farmer near Rarig Springs and fired a fusillade of shots into his house where his unsuspecting family lay sleeping, wounding Mr. Moseley and his wife, and barely missing the children.

Nov. —, 1907—Made another in the neighborhood of H. C. Wallis and warned people not to buy of Mr. Wallis' store.

Nov. 22, 1907—Night riders pass through Cadiz unmolested, (though this, I am told, was a common occurrence).

Dec. 6, 1907—Large force of night riders of about 300 masked men

Would You Swap $100 for $104? THINK IT OVER

We do not call it swapping, but it amounts to the same thing. $100 deposited in our savings department will grow to $104 in one year's time. We pay 4 per cent interest. Note the advantage; do not keep your money where it will not earn more. Think it over and you will find it wise to swap.

Mechanics and Farmers Savings Bank mobilized at Wallonia and publicly donned their masks, for the raid on Hopkinsville. In the streets of Wallonia.

Spring, 1908—Murder inoffensive negro in cold blood at Golden Pond.

Visit home of David Cossey, shot his daughter and unmercifully whip Mr. Cossey for refusing to join the night riders.

Spring, 1908—Visited the home of John Hicks, leave threatening letter followed by another visit and a severe whipping.

Visited home of Bob Collins near Rockcastle and severely whipped him, also visited his brother, John Collins at Golden Pond and whipped him.

May 17, 1908—Went to house where Leonard Holloway was, near Cerulean Springs, and took him out, partially dressed, telling his wife "she could take care of herself, and they would take care of her husband." He has never been seen or heard of since.

July 22, 1908—Depot of I. C. R. R. at Cerulean Springs burned by night riders in revenge for soldiers camping on R. R. right-of-way at Cobb, Ky.

Depots at Gracy, in Christian county, and Otter Pond, Caldwell county, burned the same night.

Crown to Her Husband.

An old-fashioned English stone-mason is employed in a yard in upper Hoboken to chisel tombstones. He makes $3.40 a day, as against $2.32 in the old country. He lost his job last week, and there was some protest, to which the manager replied: "He is a splendid workman, but he is always getting us in trouble. Why, the other day a party ordered a headstone with this inscription: 'A Virtuous Woman is a Crown to Her Husband.' You see, he wanted something for his departed wife's grave. What do you suppose our Englishman did? The stone being a little narrow he contracted the sentence thus: 'A Virtuous Woman is 5c to Her Husband.' As we couldn't stand the 5-shilling business we had to drop him." —New York Sun.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBORS

And you will generally find that they know of more good, intelligent people, those of good sense and discernment in your vicinity who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's World-famed Family Medicines than by all other proprietary medicines. They have been making these cures right along for over forty years and altogether likely you will easily find people all about you who will be only too glad to say a good word for them. These old reliable curatives are not exploited or urged upon the afflicted by extravagant and false promises but have a record of real, genuine cures to sustain them.

Among women Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is truly a favorite by reason of its remarkable cures which, for over forty years by far exceed those which can be credited to any medicine extant. By a little inquiry you will no doubt find some of these cured and grateful cases in your immediate neighborhood, for they are to be met with practically EVERYWHERE. They are Dr. Pierce's best advertisements. Seek their advice if you are a poor despondent over-burdened broken down, weak, or pain-wracked woman, suffering from some derangement or weakness incident to your sex.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser in plain English, by R. V. Pierce, M. D., (new fully revised up-to-date edition) gives all particulars which women need to know about their peculiar functions and how to correct ordinary derangements and weaknesses. Cloth-bound volume of 1000 pages. 31 one-cent stamps, or in paper covers for 21 cents, post-paid. Why not send for it NOW? The New Edition is almost a household necessity.
